Event Outline

Easter Rising - a talk by Dan Mulhall

Mon, 2 May, 19:00 – 20:00, Central Library, George IV Bridge

Irish Ambassador, Dan Mulhall, returns to Edinburgh Libraries to talk about the Easter Rising, one hundred years after the event. The Easter Rising, (Éirí Amach na Cásca), also known as the Easter Rebellion, was an armed insurrection in Ireland during Easter Week 1916. The Rising was mounted by Irish Republicans to end British rule in Ireland and establish an independent Irish Republic while the United Kingdom was heavily engaged in World War I. It was the most significant uprising in Ireland since the rebellion of 1798.

Dan Mulhall, Irish Ambassador, returned to Edinburgh Central Library on the evening of 2 May to talk about the 1916 Easter Rising. An audience of just over 150 people heard Dan Mulhall outline the background, the events, and the impact of the Easter Rising.
